

EMBASSY OF THE
REPUBLIC OF GHANA
BEIJING

PRESS RELEASE

CELEBRATION OF GHANA'S 69TH
INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY IN CHINA

The Ghana Embassy in the People's Republic of China, on Thursday, 5th of February, 2026 held a Press Soiree in Beijing to create awareness of Ghana's 69th Independence Anniversary. The event brought together various Chinese media houses to learn of Ghana's investment opportunities, cultural heritage, and activities planned for the celebration of the Independence Day of Ghana on 6th March, 2026.

2. During the event, Ambassador Kojo Bonsu reaffirmed Ghana's commitment to deepening ties with China, highlighting the country's stable democracy, business-friendly environment, and rich cultural heritage as key activities for investment, tourism, and cultural exchange. To drive this agenda, the Embassy has lined up a series of events, including a business forum to unlock trade and investment opportunities, an art exhibition showcasing works by top Ghanaian artists like Ibrahim Mahama and child prodigy Ace Liam Nana Sam Ankrah, and a fashion show by Nineteen57 that blends traditional and modern styles.

3. The Embassy is extending a warm invite to Chinese businesses, media, and the public to join Ghana's Independence Day celebrations on 6th March, 2026. With key investment opportunities in infrastructure, clean energy, IT, healthcare, and agriculture, the Embassy is keen on forging partnerships to drive economic growth and it is grateful for the support of the media while it looks forward to collaborating to propagate Ghana's story in the People's Republic of China.
